

Absolute Transparency and Comparative Insight into Your Outside Counsel Legal Expenses

Who, what, when and how much: Sky Analytics delivers actionable control and benchmarking for legal spend management and budgeting

Macro and micro benchmarking across multiple law firms:
In contrast to law firm provided legal invoicing and matter management services, Sky Analytics delivers unique and 100% agnostic corporate-focused financial reporting for General Counsel.

For the first time, internal legal departments can easily confirm and benchmark their legal expenses across all their current external counsel as well as Sky Analytics' proprietary and confidential database of matters from other industries and litigation lines.

Reports include:

Specific client activities

- All law firms employed, including archived billings
- Individual timekeepers and timekeeper groups
- Specific matters
- Invoices, consolidated and line-by-line

Cross client benchmarking

- Law firms encompassing hundreds of millions of dollars of billed fees
- Individual timekeepers and timekeeper groups
- Specific matters
- Expenses parsing by sector, geography, total spend, etc.

“The power to instantly understand and benchmark millions of dollars of legal expenses comprehensively across all lines of litigation is incredible.

Our clients can now quickly identify the cost efficiency of their outside law firms and drill down into detailed reports of specific expenses and timekeepers.”

Advanced features include:

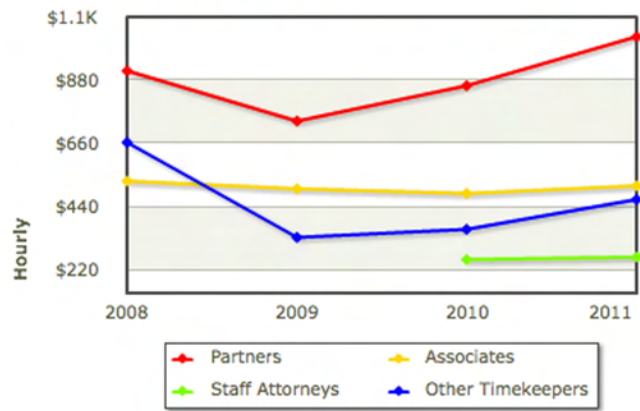

- Powerful “Keyword Explorer” search with graphical display
- Precision, automated integration with UTBMS billing codes
- Fast navigation from invoice trends to exact line-item fees

Request a demonstration with live data

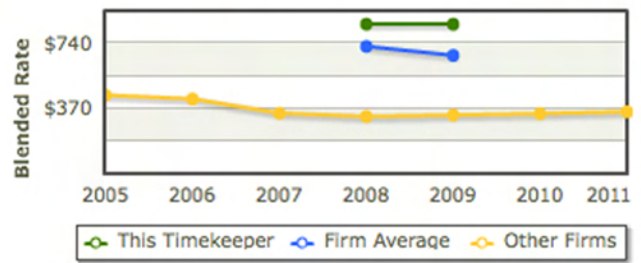

Rather than presenting data in tedious and difficult to interpret tabular reports, Sky Analytics uses simple, easy to understand charts, yet charts which allow easy drilldown to underlying data 24/7.

Hourly Rate Trends

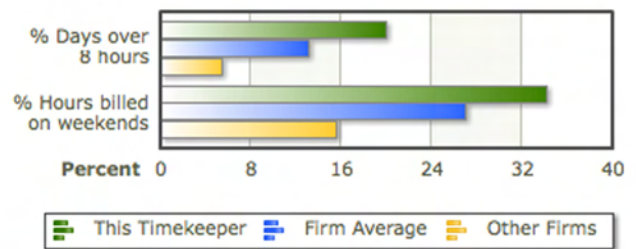

Monitor billing trends within individual law firms to confirm matter efficacy.

Rates Over Time, Partners

Benchmark individual timekeepers with their firm as well as other firms.

Work-Life Balance, Individual Timekeepers

Assure timekeepers' billing hours are appropriate for your matters.
